

small business

It's HP's lowest PC price ever. And your best PC opportunity ever.

Act now to get free shipping and big discounts on HP products. Upgrade your office's productivity with HP products designed specifically for small business, like the HP Compaq d220. Systems powered by Intel® Pentium® 4 processors can run your most demanding applications simultaneously, so you can get more done in less time. While these prices are historically low, there's no compromising the support and service you'll get from HP and our SMB partners—we stand ready to help you choose the perfect products and configure custom systems for your business. And we'll continue to provide guidance long after you purchase your system. With HP, you'll get more reliability, more service and support, and more local expertise through our SMB partners.
